Welcome our new resident

Torah Department Announcements

Dear Residents,

Chumashim, Tehillim, Siddurim (Ashkenaz, Sefard, and Eidot Mizrach), and Birkonim have been placed on floors 1,2, and 3 for use in the common space on Shabbat and throughout the year. Since each floor has a specific number of seforim, they are labeled by floor number. Please make sure they are returned to their proper place so that they remain available for the benefit of all.

Similarly, new siddurim (Ashkenaz, Sefard, and Eidot Mizrach) have been added to the collection in the Beit Knesset. These are marked with the yellow stickers of the Beit Knesset. Therefore, they may not be taken out of the Beit Knesset, and must be returned to their indicated shelf immediately after use. They are not for personal use, and must remain available for the benefit of all. The Residence is amply supplied with siddurim for use in each location, so please do not move seforim from one location to another.

Yiddle Riddles

By Rabbi Shlomo Estrin:

1 -It's a fighting force that prevailed,
It's a tool that bangs a nail,
It's an acronym proclaiming,
That nothing can compare.
What is it?

2 -I help to make a brand-new king,
I help unstick a too tight ring ,
And after the battles of Yavan were fought,
A little of me did quite a lot.
What am I?

3 -On one through eight I'm just on one,
That is, of course. unless...
You have some special other joy,
Like a brand new suit or dress.
What am I?

4 -I'm a hero in the story of Chanukah,
Although I'm not one of your tribe,
I'm a man with a sword, a man with a crown,
And my name's been passed down with great pride.
Who am I?

5 -When the eighth day came,
When the seventh day came,
When the new moon came,
It was there I took aim,
And said- 'These three now must stop.'!
Who am I?

6 -For all eight nights of Chanukah,
We light to remind of the past,
A very, very holy light,
But there's another also doing this task.
Also it shines, it also reminds,
And holiness comes from its lights,
On one night of Chanukah they share this task,
And some years they even share twice.
What is 'the other' mitzva?
